This Little Tree

As the air is getting colder and the holidays draw near,
We all find ways to show we care and spread our Christmas cheer.
The grown-ups hustle-bustle and the city glows with light,
But the children look for smaller ways to make the season bright:

We share our smiles and laughter with the people that we see.
We sing our favorite Christmas songs and decorate the tree.
We think about the blessings we enjoy the whole year through,
And hope for peace and happiness to shine on friends like you.

As we hang each shining ornament right up to Christmas Day,
This little tree reminds us of the role we children play:
For though it's small, each bauble brings a special kind of joy
Just like the Christmas spirit in each little girl and boy.
